

Fishing Creek Players

Minutes – Special Board Meeting – May 15, 2018, to decide venue path for next production

In attendance: Joey Sue Laubach, Brandon Hartman, Lori Savage, George Ricker, Candy Carter, Frank Tranor. Absent: Marilyn Kishbaugh

Began meeting around 6:10pm.

Lori and Candy described a new potential venue at the old Grassmere schoolhouse. A look see for technical capability will be made after this meeting ends. Report(s) to follow.

FET informed all that the Iddings group visit went well and no hard feelings remain and also discussed status of auditorium rental at the high school including a cost of $1300 for 6 days rental and 8 hours of security on the weekend. Our November weekend dates are still available.

Fundraising committee met 5/8 and reported several efforts to be pursued –

- Tee shirts promoting “It’s a wonderful life” for resale possibly in combo with ticket buys
- A photo booth at the Benton Carnival and maybe at the rodeo
- Winterfest hot drinks booth at the south end of the venue

Next Production discussions raised a motion by Lori and 2nd by George to do “It’s a Wonderful Life”, with Candy as director, Lori as stage manager, Joey Sue on props and Joan as set coordinator. Oh, and FET to oversee the front of the house and of course, George as tech tsar. After resolving the positions, the motion passed unanimously.

FET will be absent for the June 5 meeting and Lori volunteered to take the minutes.

Respectfully submitted,
