Absent: Daniel Hartman, T.J. Schultz

Visitors: Carl and Marilyn Kishbaugh (to talk about "Getting Mama Married")

Meeting officially started at 6:30 motioned by Frank, seconded by Joey Sue.

Financial status: General Account=$316.19, Production Account=$2341.23.

Production: "Dead to the Last Drop" Production dates November 8 and 9 at 7pm at Benton Fire Hall with doors to open at 6:30. Price voted for $25.00 for dinner and show for regular seats, $28.00 for dinner and show at front tables and front tables will be able to participate in production. It was discussed to have some sort of buzzer system with follow lights at front tables for participation in show. Brandon will talk to Chris about food and request she make an extra 10 entrees just in case we have people come to the door without reserved seating. It will be a full meal. It was voted to use same computer service as last production and to have individual seats labeled at tables to reserve. Tickets will be available in the next two weeks. Joey Sue will take care of props and set and needs to get work crew together to help paint set. Frank will try to sell ads for programs. Brandon will make posters by next meeting and must be hung up ASAP. Cast is full and rehearsals are started.

Workshops: Frank will talk to N4C to see when would work best for them. Probable for Spring in midweek evenings. We will discuss more at next meeting.

Nominations and Votes: Frank made motion and seconded by Brandon to retain Brandon and Frank for another 3 years and to keep officers the same. Motion approved. (Note: minutes were revised to show 3 versus original "1 year" by FET 10/21/19.)

"Getting Mama Married"= Carl is able to direct but must be next Fall. Small cast, moving limited, would work better in a small setting and will check in to using multipurpose room at N4C. Dinner theater would not work with this production.

Meeting adjourned at 7:08 with motion made by Frank, seconded by Joey Sue. Next meeting is October 10, 2019 at 6:00 pm at N4C.

Respectfully Submitted: Joey Sue Laubach Secretary
