

Fishing Creek Players Board of Directors meeting February 13, 2020

Present: Frank Tranor, Brandon Hartman, Joey Sue Laubach, Candy Lupini (Late, came at end of meeting)

Absent: Lori Savage, T.J. Schultz, Daniel Hartman, Amber Anthony

Meeting began at 6:15. We did not have a forum so we discussed the following:

Financial Status: all accounts remain the same.

Production: "Dead to the Last Drop" The dates have changed to April 17 and 18, we have a full cast and we are able to move the rights to that date. Brandon talked to Chris at Old Filling Station and the menu for show to include Chicken Parm and pasta, salad and desert station at $15 per plate. Rehearsals are coming along well. Posters to be up by end of February, beginning of March. Brandon is talking with ticket sales people and hopefully tickets will be on sale by the beginning of March. Frank talked to the fire hall people and we are okay for those dates.

We sold raffle tickets for the play at the Craft fair and did well. We have a table at the Community Days on March 7 and will sell raffle tickets then. Frank will keep money until all raffle ticket sales are final than deposit.

Meeting ended at 6:29. Next board meeting is March 12 at 6:00.

Respectfully submitted, Joey Sue Laubach secretary
